HELLO

Hello. We are tecMAMBO.

tecMAMBO is a technology publication with one promise: make technology understandable without dumbing it down. Founded in 2016 in Nairobi, we are the translation layer between confusing tech and the people who use it, from first-time buyers to seasoned enthusiasts. We explain, review, and demystify technology in plain English, so our readers can understand it and decide what is worth their money. That clarity is our craft. It is also what makes us a trusted, valuable place for your brand.

MEDIA KIT

Why partner with tecMAMBO

An audience that is deciding.

Our readers are researching phones, tools, and services and working out what to buy. That is a high-intent moment, and a valuable one.

Trust that transfers.

We are independent, we label everything sponsored, and we never let advertising bend our verdicts. A message here lands differently from a banner on a clickbait page.

We make complex things clear.

If your product is powerful but hard to explain, you are who we can help most. Making complicated technology make sense is the single thing we do best.

Rooted in Kenya, read beyond it.

We understand this market, and we speak to a growing pan-African and global audience of tech-curious readers.

AUDIENCE

Our audience

We are a young, fast-growing publication, and we believe in showing real numbers, not inflated ones. Here is who you reach.

Audience figures are shared from current verified data when they are ready. We do not publish placeholder metrics, inflated reach figures, or invented engagement claims.

Figures current when shared. Ask us for the latest breakdown.

MEDIA KIT

What we publish

MAMBO Explains

Jargon-busting guides that make the moving parts make sense.

Reviews

The verdict first, the full spec sheet a tap away.

Wallet Watch

Honest budget picks and buying decisions with the hype taken out.

MAMBO vs Real Life

How technology behaves once it leaves the keynote.

Should You Care?

The news, translated into what it changes for you.

MAMBO Take

Clear, accountable opinion.

The Glossary

A plain-English dictionary wired into every article.

We cover AI, smartphones, computing, apps, audio, wearables, connectivity, power, and more.

Ways to partner

Display advertising.

Clean, viewable placements that respect the reader. No clutter, no pop-ups. Ideal for awareness and reach.

Sponsored and partner content.

Plain-English branded stories, written to our standard and clearly labelled. Ideal when your product needs explaining, not just showing.

Newsletter sponsorship.

A clear message in The MAMBO Briefing, in front of readers who opted in. Ideal for engaged, direct reach.

Commerce and Wallet Watch.

Honest, disclosed product inclusion in our buying guides and deals. Merit based. Ideal for products that earn their place.

Custom partnerships.

Sponsored explainer series, Glossary sponsorships, events, and video, built around your goals.

One thing we do not sell: our independent reviews and verdicts. That is what keeps our audience trusting us.

STANDARDS

Honest by design

Everything sponsored is clearly labelled, and our editorial team keeps the final say on quality. That transparency is not a limitation, it is the reason our audience trusts what they read, and why your message benefits from being in that environment. Read our editorial standards at tecMAMBO.com/editorial-standards.
